

young men coming in in the next election, and probably for ever; you would have the spectacle of a President appointing marshals and judges to assist him in continuing an office. It is the passage of this law which, in the next election at least, will place over all the local elections this supervising power with high-paid officers; and that will be the beginning of the end of free government.

MAJ. WOODRUFF, Treasurer of Arkansas, who was reported about $30,000 short in his accounts, has announced aver enough property to secure his bondsmen against loss.

worth, banana, has been among the negroes here some time working up the business. He represents to them that they can acquire rich lands in Oklahoma for almost nothing and that if enough of them will go they can secure a complete control of the government of the Territory. A number of negroes who owned good farms here sold everything and went in in the exodus.

From an interview, A. World.
In the history of the world, there has been no more dramatic and more successful revolution than the one which has taken place in the United States. The people have not only won their freedom, but they have also won their rights. They have not only won their freedom, but they have also won their rights. They have not only won their freedom, but they have also won their rights.

Prevention
It is better to prevent than to cure. The best way to prevent disease is by keeping the body in good health. This can be done by eating a healthy diet, exercising regularly, and getting plenty of rest. It is also important to avoid bad habits, such as smoking and drinking alcohol.
